North Devon Festival of Transport

Victoria Park Bideford – North Devon

Sunday 13th August 2023

CHAIRMAN'S CHAT

Firstly Kate and I would like to thank everyone for all the cards and presents at our combined "Birthday Bash" and Midsummer Run last weekend. The weather was very kind, we had a great turnout of around 40 cars and the final destination at Rose Ash with the hog roast and ice creams seemed very popular. What's more everyone made it around the route without getting lost. Driving back home after the event all I could hear was the chink of all the bottles we received! It was a day that made some fantastic memories for us both...and it was great to share it all with such wonderful petrol heads as yourselves.

Other notable events this month included the South Molton show where we had around 30 members cars on show, the Lyn Valley Classic which was also well supported with Club members and of course Ilfracombe with over 30 cars on display. So a great vote of thanks goes out to all those who helped organise the NDSCCC Club contingent.

Coming up in the near future is Westward Ho! ,another Barnstaple Square Display, Powderham (Black and White fancy dress theme), Chulmleigh Old Fair, Rosemoor Vintage Weekend and Braunton Wheels all of the details of which are in the magazine. The monthly Nosh and Natter lunch meets remain ongoing (contact John and Geraldine, details in the mag).

Also this is your final call for the North Devon Festival of Transport, entries are about to close and with over 200 cars booked in it is an event that you really should not miss and be part of. Remember you don't necessarily have to be in a historic car to attend, modern sports cars are also invited. As it is an NDSCCC partnering event your membership almost guarantees your acceptance.

Please do keep a lookout in the magazine for the events and of course your E mails for the same. Its such a shame when members tell me that they missed an event because they had no knowledge of it, yet it had been advertised in the magazine for months.

Keep up the good work and I look forward to meeting up with you as this glorious summer continues (there I said it!).

Once again thanks for all the good wishes and gifts for Kate's Birthday and my Big Birthday.

Cheers Tim and Kate
